

The National Seminar on Educational Innovation (SNIP 2019)

Auditorium of Kebumen Campus
Universitas Sebelas Maret, Surakarta, Indonesia
October 12, 2019

PREFACE

Educational innovations need to be carried out continuously by educational institutions in facing the Industrial Revolution Era 4.0. It requires collaboration between families, schools and community. To support this idea, among educational institutions need to conduct studies and share research about family, school and community education in scientific forums. Therefore, the PGSD Kebumen FKIP Sebelas Maret University (UNS) as an educational institution initiated a scientific forum in the form of a National Seminar on Educational Innovation with the theme "Family, School and Community Education in the Industrial Revolution Era 4.0".

The goals of the seminar are: (1) to build the same perception about the importance of family, school and community education; (2) to build insights on the Industrial Revolution Era 4.0; (3) to prepare educators who are able to instill education of family, school and community through innovative learning; (4) means of dissemination about research and/or studies for the community and stakeholders; and (5) to build teamwork and partnerships nationally.

On this occasion, the committee would like to thank and appreciate those who participated in the seminar, namely: the main speakers: Dr. Mardiyana, M.Sc. as well as the Dean of FKIP Sebelas Maret University Surakarta, who has given permission and ease in holding the seminar a main speaker; Prof. Dr. Euis Sunarti, M.Sc., from the Bogor Institute of Agriculture and Dr. Kartika Chrysti Suryandari, M.Si. from Sebelas Maret University; co-authors; students and seminar participants.
