Preface

The Third International Conference on Multiliteracy and Higher Order Thinking Skills 2019 (The 3rd ICOMHOTS 2019) is held at Auditorium of Postgraduate School Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia, Bandung, Indonesia on July 23, 2019. The Third ICOMHOTS 2019 provides an opportunity for academicians and professionals from various educational levels to share their theoretical knowledge, research findings and educational practices with their colleagues and academic community concerned with multiliteracy and higher order thinking skills.

The Third ICOMHOTS 2019 consists of plenary and a parallel sessions. In plenary sessions, educational experts from Indonesia, Malaysia and Thailand Growth Triagle (IMT-GT) are invited to present their perspectives dealt with the theme of the conference. The parallel session is designed to give an opportunity for researchers, lecturers, teacher and postgraduate students to present their research-based articles. Selected papers are proposed to be published International Indexed Journals and the rests (proceedings) are published in UNS International Journal.

We would like to express our deep gratitude to all invited/plenary speakers, paper presenters and the board of the committee (Steering Committee and Organizing Committee) who fully support for the success of the conference. Special thanks are also sincerely devoted to the reviewers who have carefully selected the articles that are eligible to be presented and published. Finally, we would like to thank to Postgraduate School of Universitas Pendidikan Indonesia that fully facilitate The Third ICOMHOTS.
